

Community Centre – number 17 on the map.

Vicki Carver - Choughs

Vicki has been crafting for over 10 years and is the co-owner of Choughs, on Fore Street (number 1 on the trail). Vicki will be exhibiting and demonstrating her decoupage work. This will include decorative furniture and objects with pictures.

<https://www.facebook.com/ChoughsCraftyUpcycling/>

Lita Elliot - Choughs

Lita has been crafting for over 10 years and is the other co-owner of Choughs in town. Lita is going to be demonstrating how to make lampshades on the day as well as exhibiting her work.

<https://www.facebook.com/ChoughsCraftyUpcycling/>

Natalie Toms- Natalie Toms Wildlife Artist

Natalie is a Cornish wildlife artist and has been drawing since a very young age, becoming a self-employed artist in 2016. She draws inspiration from Cornwall's diverse countryside and coast, which has shaped her connection to the natural world. Natalie works from her garden surrounded by wild hedgerows, fields and woodland.

<https://natalietoms.com/>

Community Centre – number 17 on the map.

Bodmin and District Wood Turners

The Club has been in existence for some 20 years and it promulgates the art and craft of woodturning. The club meets twice a month with a demonstration on a Thursday evening and a training session on a Saturday. Members make wooden objects, such as lamps, stools, bowls and candlesticks.

<https://www.bdwt.co.uk/>

Belinda Latimer – Belinda Latimer Designs

Belinda has been creating her own art pieces since 2015, having been a secondary school teacher for 14 years. Her work is in a range of media in 2 and 3D, from paintings to wire, textiles to printmaking. All of Belinda's work is filled with colour and texture, inspired by her wonderful surroundings and its inspirational energy.

<https://www.facebook.com/BelindaLatimerCreative/>

Alison Lamb – Ali's Cards

Alison began making cards within the past 12 months as she found it extremely relaxing. She works with card and paper and finds that she is drawn to side scene cards as they can be more expressive than a flat card.

Community Centre – number 17 on the map.

Ginny Norris – Seaview Crochet

Ginny makes crochet garments from jumpers to cardigans, socks to scarves. She started making for herself about 10 years ago and for others with the last 3 years. Ginny loves colour and a good quality of yarn which are from natural fibres and recycled.

<https://www.facebook.com/seaviewcrochet>

Rosie Wiscombe – Jeanie & Me

Rosie makes contemporary bags and garments from recycled jeans and second-hand garments. She loves the playful and colourful fabrics with a focus on subtly recycled details. Rosie's work focuses on sustainability and an eco-friendly ethos.

<https://www.jeanieandme.co.uk/>

Angela Richards – Jewel Box Art

Angela has been creating her artwork for the past 6 years. Creating pictures and cards from recycled and some new jewellery. Her work is unique with her own designs captured in colour and sparkling jewels.

<https://www.facebook.com/angela.richards.94214508>

Community Centre – number 17 on the map.

Margaret Fraser – Wobbly Pottery

Maggie commenced her making of pots about 2 years ago having previously worked with stone wear clay. She now hand builds her work and concentrates on small items.

Pam Middleton – Pamsky Knits

Pam creates handknitted items for babies and children. Having knitted her whole life, she commenced Pamsky Knits 3 years ago. She designs all her work to create colour clothes for youngsters. Pam's garments are one of a kind.

<https://www.facebook.com/pamskyknits>

Lorna Tremayne – Lorna Tremayne Art

Lorna has been painting her whole life and has been a full-time artist for the past 3 years. She creates locally inspired landscapes and abstracts as well as sea glass jewellery. Lorna will be exhibiting original artworks and fine art quality framed prints. Lorna works in mixed media, but mostly in acrylics.

<https://www.lornatremayne-art.com/>

Community Centre – number 17 on the map.

Linda Moffatt – Linda Moffatt Art

Linda has always loved painting and creating and on retiring in 2021 she has been painting on a regular basis. Linda is self-taught and mostly paints in watercolours in a loose and colourful way. Using bold brushstrokes and mark making, this type of painting allows Lorna greater freedom to express her love of colour. She also creates botanical plaques and colourful abstract coasters.

https://www.instagram.com/lindamoffatt_art/

Debbie Martin – Cornish Paper Cut Art

Debbie has been making for the past 10 years. Her work is a collection of vibrant, quirky and original paper cut art, inspired by the sea. Debbie uses colour repeat art which includes boats, crabs, swimmers and lobsters, along with using repurposed vintage maps which include hand cut rolling hills and sea vessels.

<https://www.cornishpapercutart.co.uk/>

Alan Goatman

Ever since Alan was a child, he had a fascination with wood and it became a passion at the age of 12, when he bought his first lathe and explore the possibilities of woodturning. He spent his teenage years making and creating turned products. Alan's hobby was put aside for most of his life due to working as a self-employed carpenter. Now Alan has some spare time due to retirement he has rekindled his passion for turning and making wooden objects and introducing different mediums such as resins.

Community Centre – number 17 on the map.

	Ruth Taylor – Ruth Taylor Art Ruth has always been drawing from her earliest memory. She enjoys drawing people predominantly in pen and line but also works in watercolours, pencil, oil, chalk and fabric. Ruth is inspired by people watching and buildings and has always drawn towards humour and the absurd. https://www.facebook.com/ruthaylorartistcornwall
	Lucy Reynolds – Lucy Reynolds Illustrations Lucy's work is mostly with watercolours and fine liners, which enable her to create quirky colourful illustrations. Lucy commenced her creative work as a child because she loved drawing, painting and model making. She will be exhibiting framed and unframed prints, greetings cards, tea towels, sketchbooks and bookmarks. https://www.ldr-illustration.co.uk/About
	Richard Bennett Richard has painted all of his life having previously having his own gallery. His work now is exhibited in a number of galleries around Cornwall. Richard now works in oil paint and has become captivated by 'plein-aire' painting, which he wishes he discovered years ago. Richard's works focuses on areas he visits from Cornwall to Yorkshire and Devon. https://www.richardebennettpaintings.co.uk/